Policies and Controls

Whirlpool UK acknowledges that there is a continuous risk of Slavery in all sectors, industries and jurisdictions, particularly in relation to raw materials sourcing and product manufacturing. Consequently, Whirlpool UK has implemented enhanced measures to address Slavery.

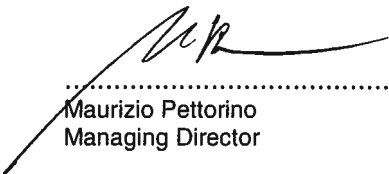

- Code of Ethics - All Whirlpool UK employees are subject to Whirlpool’s Code of Ethics, which details Whirlpool’s policies such as the Diversity and Equal Opportunity policy and the Environmental, Health and Safety policy.
- Recruitment – Whirlpool UK prohibits abuse and discrimination in its workforce and ensures that it complies with all applicable laws and regulations and conducts relevant checks to prevent Slavery in its workforce.
- Global Supplier Code of Conduct/Supply Chain Transparency – Whirlpool’s Global Supplier Code of Conduct is incorporated by reference into our supply agreements, and contains the fundamental requirements we expect our suppliers to comply with to ensure business is conducted in an ethical and Slavery free manner.

- Audits – Whirlpool engages an independent agency to conduct periodic audits of select suppliers. This helps to ensure that our suppliers continue to comply with our Global Supplier Code of Conduct. The audits generally include confidential interviews with employees and on-site contract workers. Corrective action is taken with suppliers who do not address our concerns.
- Compliance Team – Whirlpool has a dedicated global compliance team, which oversees the enforcement of the Global Supplier Code of Conduct and encourages reporting of suspected non-compliance.

Whirlpool UK does not support Slavery but understands that it is a continuous risk. Consequently, Whirlpool monitors its business and strives to further enhance its culture and programmes to demonstrate its commitment.
